

Michael C. Campbell, MD, FAPA, FAAFP, DABAM, Psychiatry

Education and Training

- Board Certified in Psychiatry
- Board Certified in Addiction Medicine
- Board Certified in Family Medicine
- Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association
- Medicine degree from Thomas Jefferson University's Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, PA
- Joint residency in Family Practice and Psychiatry, West Virginia University Hospital

Dr. Campbell treats patients of all ages; beginning with children at age 3. He has a special interest in adolescents, mood disorders and patients with substance-abuse issues. He joined Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers in 2012 and currently serves as the organization's Behavioral Health Director.