

Lynn Salvati, MSN, Family Nurse Practitioner

Education and Training

- Board Certified Advance Practice Nurse Practitioner
- Masters of Science degree in Nursing, Family Nurse Practitioner Program, Pennsylvania State University, State College, PA
- Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing, Pennsylvania State University, State College, PA
- Registered Nurse, Emergency Department for five years

As a Family Nurse Practitioner at Pike Family Health Center, Lynn treats patients from age 16 to adult. She provides a complete range of services including diagnosis and treatment of acute and chronic conditions, EKG, suturing of minor lacerations, immunizations, school physicals, driver's physicals and CDL physicals. Lynn joined Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers in 2018.