

Kenneth Bannon, PA-C, Physician Assistant

Education and Training

- Bachelor of Science degree, Physician Assistant Program, King's College, Wilkes-Barre, PA
- Certified by the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants
- Member of the Pennsylvania Society of Physician Assistants and the American Academy of Physician Assistants.

As a certified physician assistant, Ken provides a complete range of primary care services for adults and pediatric patients as well as infants including diagnosis and treatment of acute and chronic conditions. He joined Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers in 2012.