

Christina “Tina” Cobb, FNP-C, Family Nurse Practitioner

Education and Training

- Master of Nursing Science as a Family Nurse Practitioner, Misericordia University, Dallas, PA
- Bachelor of Science in nursing, Misericordia University, Dallas, PA

As a certified family nurse practitioner, Tina provides inpatient and outpatient care to pulmonary patients including interpretation of pulmonary function testing. Additionally, she specializes in the evaluation and treatment of patients suffering from various sleep disorders through interpretation and follow up of polysomnograms. Tina joined Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers in 2017.