

Lisa Medvetz, MD, FACS, General & Bariatric Surgery

Education and Training

- Board-certified in General Surgery
- Medical Degree, Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, PA
- General Surgical Residency, Temple University Hospital, Philadelphia, PA
- Fellowship in Trauma/Surgical Critical Care at Cooper Hospital/University Medical Center, Camden, NJ
- Fellowship in Advanced Laparoscopic Surgery at Beth Israel Medical Center, New York, NY

Dr. Lisa Medvetz has been practicing surgery since 2000. Prior to joining Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers in 2016, she served as the Director of Bariatric Surgery at both Bingham Memorial Hospital in Blackfoot, Idaho and Lourdes Medical Associates in Willingboro, New Jersey. Additionally, she performed extensive breast surgery in various medical facilities including Cancer Treatment Centers of America in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Dr. Medvetz performs a wide range of general surgeries. She also specializes in breast care and weight-loss procedures.