PACES - TAKING STEPS FOR THE HOSPITAL & THE COMMUNITY IT SERVES

Presidents Message:

I think that we have all learned by now that Punxsutawney Phil lied to us. But spring should hopefully be right around the corner and with that construction at the hospital getting closer to being finished. Not sure how frequently everyone gets by the hospital, but the addition will be amazing.

Spring means change and time for growth. We are planning for the new and improved Gift Box and would love to welcome anyone that would be interested in being part of this new adventure. Vendor sales are back on, and any suggestions are very welcome. Our very successful Designer Purse Bingo will occur again and I hope that our auxiliary comes out to support it.

But donors aren't the only people who contribute to our auxiliary. It is the everyday volunteer that is willing to donate a few hours here and there for the greater good of the hospital and the community as a whole. It ranges from helping out "behind the scenes", to chairing major fund raisers. Our volunteers have done so much for the hospital and the community. The auxiliary could never exist without all that you do. Thank You!

We have tried a few new fundraisers the past year and are always looking for any new ideas. If you would like to chair an event, or have a suggestion, please reach out to any of the board members or myself.

Holiday Luncheon

We had very good attendance at our holiday luncheon held at Central House in Beach Lake. A collection for Wayne Woodlands netted $215.00 The food was great and the company even greater!

THE YEAR IN REVIEW

THE OTHER SHOP

HONESDALE

Sandy Kline reports that it has been a hard winter at the Other Shop. Inclement weather conditions have cause us to close often. The shop is in desperate need of volunteers for Monday mornings 10AM-12 noon and all day Friday. Please consider giving us some of your time.

The shop held our annual Christmas Party at Gretchen's Grotto. Approximately 15 volunteers and their spouses attended.

Leaves From My Journal

Sheila Daswani

By now you have heard the good news! Wayne Memorial Hospital has launched its Second Century Fund which is a fundraising campaign aimed to strengthen its core medical and surgical talent. This will be accomplished through recruitment of new physicians, acquisition of the most advanced diagnostic and treatment equipment and, lastly, upgrading and adding the latest information technologies and treatment modalities. Daunting you might say? Indeed it is, but, absolutely necessary if we are to succeed and flourish in the 21st century.

If you are like me, you have thought because we live in a pristine and exquisite rural environment with low real estate taxes, large moderately priced homes, excellent schools, little crime-- not to speak of clean air and water, why can't we attract more and younger physicians to supplement our staff whose average age is 59 ½?

The response is not simple, but it is compelling. Many young medical graduates prefer the urban life--rich with culture, big city university-affiliated hospitals and teaching programs. Unfortunately, in most cases, these graduates have amassed a good deal of debt for their advanced education. The Second Century Fund will provide the means to offer a physician relief from their educational debt. This should offer an enticing incentive for young physicians to give us a second look.

I had the privilege and pleasure of interviewing Wayne Memorial Hospital's Chief Executive Officer David Hoff. He offered a plethora of information on how the campaign plans to address these issues.

Currently the state of Pennsylvania is offering 25 grants to fund and establish a Primary Care Rural Residency Program. It will take two to three years to develop this program. However, if Wayne Memorial is successful in securing one of these grants, the proceeds will augment our fundraising efforts.

Along with recruiting new physicians, we must provide them with a state-of-the-art facility and equipment. Telemedicine, which I discussed in a recent column, is also part of the hospital's thrust for excellence. It allows specialists to communicate immediately with local physicians.

Other state-of-the-art equipment and new IT technology will also be sought after by the hospital to achieve its goal and mission of delivering the very best in modern healthcare and if past is prologue, Wayne Memorial and its talented and devoted staff will be successful in securing a brilliant healthcare future for all of us.

PUT SOME SUNSHINE ON YOUR SHOULDER!

The Concert Committee is thrilled to announce the 7th Annual Concert will be Jim Curry’s Tribute to John Denver. It is a remarkable coincidence that Jim’s natural voice and looks are so similar to John Denver. In fact, it was Jim Curry who was selected for the off-camera singing voice in the TV movie “Take Me Home, the John Denver Story” after John’s untimely death. Jim has continued to deliver the popular songs of John Denver celebrating the natural beauty of the earth and positive messages of love and humanity. Think “Rocky Mountain High,” Annie’s song,” Take Me Home Country Roads.” This is a concert you won’t want to miss!

The date is September 8, 2019 and the venue is the Woodloch Night Club. Doors open at 3 pm and the concert is 4-6 pm. Joan Buehl will again be the ticket master. Mark your calendars! Who doesn’t need some ‘Sunshine on my Shoulder’?
