

Stacy Comer, DO, Internal Medicine
Education and Training

- Medical Degree, West Virginia College of Osteopathic Medicine, Lewisburg, WV
- Residency in Internal Medicine, Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Bethesda, MD
- Internship, Dwight D. Eisenhower, Army Center, Fort Gordon, GA
- Served in the U.S. Army Reserves and U.S. Army obtaining rank of Major
- Bachelor of Science Degree, Biology, Rutgers University, Newark, NJ

As a board-certified Internist for the Honesdale VA Outpatient Clinic, Stacy Comer, DO, offers eligible veterans access to a continuum of care from prevention to diagnosis and treatment, to appropriate follow-up and referral.

During her military career, Dr. Comer held the position of Staff Internist at the McDonald Army Health Center in Fort Eustis, VA, for nearly three years. She was a member of Continuing Promise 2015, aboard the U.S. Naval Services Comfort. During this assignment she traveled to Jamaica, Panama and Nicaragua as an Internal Medicine Physician staffing the hospital portion of the ship. Prior to joining WMCHC in 2019, she was employed as a Hospitalist by Adfinitas Health.