

Lori Shipsky-Truax, MD, FAAP
Medical Director of WMCHC Pediatric Hospitalist Program
Board Certified Pediatrician

Education and Training

- Medical Degree, Jefferson Medical College, Thomas Jefferson University, Philadelphia, PA
- Pediatric Critical Care Fellowship, Bristol-Myer's Squibb Children's Hospital at Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital, New Brunswick, NJ
- Pediatric Residency and Internship, Goryeb Children's Hospital, Morristown, NJ
- Bachelor of Science Degree, Biology, University of Scranton, Scranton, PA
- Fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics

Lori Shipsky-Truax, MD, FAAP, is the Medical Director of the Pediatric Hospitalist Program for Wayne Memorial Community Health Centers. She offers inpatient care for newborns and children at Wayne Memorial Hospital including hospital rounding, attending C-Section and high risk deliveries as well as Emergency Department On-call Support.