

Janet Erickson, MD, Internal Medicine

Education and Training

- Board Certified in Internal Medicine since 2000
- Medical Degree, Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine, Hershey, PA
- Internal Medicine residency, Lehigh Valley Hospital, Allentown, PA
- Bachelor of Science degree in Biology from the University of Scranton, Scranton, PA

As an internal medicine physician for the Honesdale VA Outpatient Clinic, Dr. Erickson offers eligible veterans access to a continuum of care from prevention to diagnosis and treatment, to appropriate follow-up and referral. Patients needing specialty care are referred to the VA Medical Center in Wilkes-Barre, PA.

Prior to joining Honesdale VA in 2021, Dr. Erickson was employed by Physician's Health Alliance, Scranton. She is an Assistant Professor at the Geisinger Commonwealth School of Medicine and the Medical Director of Commonwealth Home Health, both in Scranton.

Reflecting on her role as Primary Care Provider for the VA, Dr. Erickson states, "I feel the clinic offers a unique opportunity for veterans to obtain local, comprehensive medical care, and I am honored to be a part of this VA family."