

Veronica Cellini, MD, Board-certified Pediatrician
Pediatrics

Education and Training

- Certified by the American Board of Pediatrics
- Member of the American Academy of Pediatrics
- Doctor of Medicine Degree, Drexel University College of Medicine, Philadelphia, PA
- Pediatric Residency, University of Texas Health Science Center at San Antonio, TX

As a board-certified pediatrician, Dr. Cellini sees patients from birth to age 18. She provides diagnosis and treatment for the full spectrum of illness as well as monitors childhood growth and development, performing yearly routine physicals and administering childhood immunizations.

Prior to joining WMCHC 2023, Dr. Cellini spent seven years as a general pediatrician at Annapolis Pediatrics in Maryland