

Kyle Zeoli, LPC, ATR-BC, Licensed Professional Counselor

Education and Training

- Master of Arts degree in Art Therapy, Marywood University, Scranton, PA
- Board-certified Registered Art Therapist
- Certified in Parent-Child Interaction Therapy

Kyle works specifically with pediatric to preteen patients and their families at the Honesdale Behavioral Health Center as a Licensed Professional Counselor. She came to WMCHC in 2023 with over 10 years of experience in the mental health field. She says her passion is “working with children and families to provide support and skills while addressing challenging behaviors and parenting stressors. “ With her certification and experience as an art therapist she “incorporates non-threatening creative mediums” in her therapy “to explore thoughts and feelings through the language of art and play.”
